

College Girl!

Sung to Billy Joel's "Uptown Girl"

Parody by Brenda Darnley Martin

College Girl

She's giving up her Crisis Center world.
She's moving on to be a C – P – A,
And dreaming of much better pay.

What can we say? She's now a college gal -
Walking through all of those hallowed halls,
Crunching numbers every day and night,
Learning debits left and credits right -
Oh what a fright!

College Girl

She's giving up her Crisis Center world.
She's moving on to be a C – P – A,
And dreaming of much better pay.

Don't stay away- She's now a college gal....
