

Richard's Rainbow

Sung to "Somewhere Over the Rainbow"

Parody by Brenda Darnley Martin

Somewhere over the rainbow was a heart,
Waiting for Richard's body to need a jump start.
Somewhere over the rainbow Richard knew
That when he needed a new heart, God would come through.

It isn't hard to realize that Richard is a real swell guy.
What would we ever do without the likes of you?

Somewhere over the rainbow was a heart,
We thank God that you got it, or we'd be apart.
Now here, under the rainbow we do say,
Bring on the food with gusto, so we can celebrate today!
